Morningstar® Providing Independent, Unbiased Financial Guidance

Morningstar is established as a global leading independent investment research provider. With operations in over 20 countries, Morningstar currently tracks more than 100,000 worldwide investment vehicles every day.

Benchmarked Information

As Morningstar information is independent, all product bias has been removed from a particular fund, investment sector, currency, investment type etc.

This allows both Advisors and Clients to compare fund data consistently across the board with the peace of mind that the data will be true to the performance of the fund and its peers.

Morningstar Rating System

The Morningstar rating system is derived from the relationship between fund performance and fund risk. This can be used to directly compare funds within respective categories.
